

With proper training and education anyone can become a sloth scientist, armadillo ambassador or anteater advocate. What skills do you currently have that would make you a good Xenarthran scientist?

What skills and education would you need to learn to be an excellent Xenarthran scientist?

